RISE OF DICK LYONS IN POLITICS HAS BEEN SPECTACULAR

Young Assemblyman Was "Drafted" for United States Senate

When Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey staged the famed battle of the "long count" in Soldiers Field, Chicago, in 1928, the destinies of two close friends and spectators were more drastically affected than either of the principals in the squared ring.

Bill Weiss and Dick Lyons had come down from Mundelein, Ill., together for the occasion. In the excitement of the fight, Bill Weiss bumped his knee, an injury that caused his death and left the eighth district without a representative in the state legislature.

Lyons was then an active real estate dealer—he has been president of the Libertyville-Mundelein Real Estate Board and secretary of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards—who had just been re-elected to the Mundelein Village Board.

"Kidded" Into Candidacy
But in the few weeks after his friend's death, events in Dick Lyons' life changed rapidly. A political reporter of a Lake county newspaper, as an afterthought, added Lyons' name to a long list of others who might be prospects for the legislature.

It surprised Lyons, but so did a telephone call that he received the same day. His unknown caller gave Dick a long list of reasons why he was unfit for the job. Which was too much for the Irish blood of the young realtor, who promptly decided to run and surprised everyone by being elected. Today he is the Republican candidate for United States Senator.

For an Irishman, Richard J. Lyons got a poor start in life. The thirteen-year-old child of immigrant parents, an Irish father and an English mother, he was born in Chicago May 12, 1895. But ill-omened or not, Dick Lyons started out the hard way. He left school at 12, got a job as a messenger boy and at 15 was a full-fledged telegrapher. While employed at Lake Forest he met his wife, then Miss Blanche Mitchell of Prairie View, who worked in the Waukegan telephone office. They were married in 1916 and young Lyons took a job as salesman.

By 1919 he determined to branch out for himself and moved to Area, now Mundelein, and opened a grocery business. In 1924 he sold out and became a real estate dealer, moving to Libertyville in 1933. His daughter, Lucille Mae, 20, is attending the University of Illinois, and his son, Richard Earl, 14, is in high school. Lyons, despite his busy political and business life, found time to complete his schooling.

Author of Criminal Laws
Since 1929, Lyons has represented the eighth district in the state legislature. Perhaps the fact that he was interested in law and that his father served on the Manchester, England, police force, turned his attention to state laws dealing with crime and criminals. His years in the legislature have resulted in laws setting up the state bureau of criminal identification and investigation; the state police radio system; and minimum salaries for police and firemen. He sponsored the bill which returned control of relief to the county supervisors, saving the state millions of dollars by eliminating several thousand professional relief workers, who were drawing large salaries.

Valuable Legislator
Another interest of Lyons' has been the parole board, which he believes should be composed of career men who serve for life and who are thoroughly familiar with the legal and psychological aspects of crime and criminals. Meanwhile, Lyons has been active in civic affairs in Libertyville, serving as president of the Chamber of Commerce, and belonging to the Masons, Eastern Star and Nights Templar. He has served as precinct committeeman in the Lake County Republican organization for eight years. He has consistently voted as a friend of labor and agriculture. The Legislative Voters League has characterized him as: "One of the most valuable legislators in the General Assembly."

DeKalb Girl is Winner In Personality Contest

Catherine Grey of the DeKalb Township High School of DeKalb, Illinois, was declared by the judges as the winner of the Fifth Annual Illinois State Personality Contest held last Saturday at the Lake College of Commerce building in Waukegan. Miss Grey received a beautiful trophy for her achievement and a ten-month scholarship to the Lake College of Commerce.

Second place winner in this event was Dorothy Norman of Mooseheart High School, Mooseheart, Illinois, and third-place honors went to Willard Laatz of the Argo Community High School, Argo, Illinois. The judges who rated these three as outstanding students from a standpoint of personality among forty contestants were Mr. Paul Heeren of Abbott Laboratories; Mr. C. C. Claxton, Principal of the Nobel School, Chicago; Miss A. E. Griswald, instructor at the Highland Park Township High School; Mrs. Ruby Richey, instructor at the Antioch Township High School; Judge Perry L. Persons of Waukegan; and Dr. S. A. Hamlin, School of Education, Northwestern University.

700 See Sequoit Boxing Finals

Over 700 ringsiders gathered at the Antioch Township High school gymnasium Friday night to witness the finals of the annual intra-mural boxing tournament that brought together 18 boxers—the cream of the 1938 crop of leather-pushers who had survived the preliminaries.

Coach Childers expressed himself as being well pleased with the tournament, which is a part of the physical training program for boys. The bouts are not carried out to a final championship, the coach explained, but there may be a number of winners in each weight class. The pairings are made principally on the basis of weight, but occasionally a younger boy was spotted a few pounds in favor of an older and more experienced opponent. This plan offered advantages in placing the contestants on an equal footing, the coach said.

Following are the winners in the various weight divisions at the final Friday night:
160 lb. class—Marvin Groebli, Gordon DeBoer, Jack Effinger.
140-lb. class—Robert Matthes, Chick Rothers.
130-lb. class—Gordon Pierce, William Techert, Roger Brogan.
110-lb. class—Don Sherwood.

FARMERS ARE TO BE ADVISED REGARDING CROP ALLOTMENTS

50 Ag. Men Hear AAA Explained at High School Last Night

Corn acreage allotments and soil-depleting allotments in connection with the 1938 agricultural conservation program and the purposes of the new farm bill were explained last night at the Antioch High school to a group of 50 farmers at the township meeting.

The speakers were Farm Adviser H. C. Gilkerson, who explained the purpose of the AAA, and Chet Faulkner, chairman of the soil conservation committee, who spoke on crop limitations. C. L. Kutil, director of agriculture at the Antioch High school gave the farmers some valuable information on the growing of alfalfa.

Farmers to Be Notified
Under the provisions of the new farm bill, each farmer and land owner is to be notified of his corn and general depleting allotments by a card mailed from the office of the county agricultural conservation committee, Faulkner said. Any farm operator or owner who fails to receive his card may obtain his acreage allotments by calling at the office of the county committee where allotments of all Lake county farms are posted.

The individual allotments represent each Lake county farmer's share of the allotments for the county. County allotments were established by the state committee by distributing the state acreage allotments among the counties. This allotment was apportioned to individual farms by county and township committees which were elected by the farmers, last fall.

Must Meet Requirements
Keeping corn and total soil-depleting acreage within the corn and total soil-depleting acreage allotments is one of the two requirements to be met by farmers to qualify for full payment under the 1938 program. The other requirement is the use of soil-conserving practices to meet the soil-building goal for the farm.

Henry H. Grimm, who was chairman in charge of the meeting last night, announced that a similar meeting will be held at the local high school next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. All farmers of the community are urged to attend.

"J. B." Company Plays "The Hideaway" Tonight

Crowded houses continue at the Crystal theatre every Thursday night to witness the presentations of the J. B. Romaine company.
Tonight will be played "The Hideaway," the story of a young girl attending a girl's school—she gets into an auto accident and crashes into a private residence, and from there the story carries on.

Next Thursday mirth and entertainment will be provided by "The Family Upstairs," a play that has been leased for his summer tour.
Five more plays here and the company will start north with the road show. The company has enjoyed a long run here and it is only the co-operation of the local merchants that has enabled them to provide high class entertainment at such small admission prices.

Lake County T. B. Assn. To Be Represented at Annual State Meeting

GROCERY ON WHEELS DRAWS MUCH INTEREST

Dal-Ray Puts a Store on Wheels for Convenience of Customers

The huckster idea in vogue many years ago became motorized and completely modern in Antioch community with the establishment a few days ago of the Dal-Ray traveling grocery, a service inaugurated by this progressive firm for the convenience of customers.

The originators of this modern merchandising method are Arthur Dalziel and Ray Van Patten, proprietors of the Dal-Ray grocery store, who had the truck constructed especially for the purpose. The grocery is equipped with refrigeration, and perishables as well as a large stock of staples and canned goods are carried on the truck at all times.

According to Harry Messing, who is in charge of the new mobile unit, the grocery leaves each day on regularly scheduled trips through Antioch and surrounding territory, giving housewives a chance to shop right at home. The truck also picks up eggs and other farm produce.

Art and Ray report that the novel traveling grocery is widening the scope of the store's service every day, making many new friends and customers along the route, and that the new venture seems destined for success. And the boys are using the only correct ingredients that produce success in all new business—quality merchandise and prompt, courteous service. Add to this, that the boys are going after business.

Explains Purpose of Week

The purpose of National Air Mail Week is to intensify the American people's consciousness of aviation and the air mail, but the more immediate objectives of this far-flung and vigorous movement, which has the full support of the Post Office Department, are at once patriotic and practical.

From a 218-mile flight between New York City and Washington, D. C., in May, 1918, to a 9000-mile flight from New York City to Hong Kong in May, 1938, is the remarkable story of air mail development.

Offer Prizes to Students

Prizes are being offered for the best essays on the subject "Wings Across America" and the best posters based on the idea "Posters Relating to the Air Mail Service of the Present and Future and Its Adaptability to the Needs of the Nation." Information regarding the contest and prizes may be obtained at your local post office.

Participation in the contests by students will be encouraged. Postmaster Horan said, and the plans will be placed before local school heads.

Kitty Hawk, on the sandy shore of North Carolina, the birthplace of aviation, where the never-to-be-forgotten Wright Brothers made the first airplane flight, will be the historic center of interest during the Air Mail Week.

A special and official cachet for air mail has been authorized for Kitty Hawk for Air Mail Week by the Post Office Department. This cachet will commemorate the first flight and will pay due honor to Kitty Hawk, now marked by an enduring memorial, for the place it holds in the record of the United States' progress at an amazing rate in aviation. Each city and town elsewhere throughout the United States will be privileged also to have a special cachet for the marking of air mail during the week.

Back to Boots and Saddles?

Testifying before a Congressional committee on the subject of monopoly, Bernard Baruch said: "We have to distinguish between monopoly (which is such control of price and production as exploits the public) and mere bigness, which through mass distribution and mass manufacture has been one of our greatest blessings in low price, cheap service, and hence in increased production and better standards of living than exist elsewhere on the globe."

Here Mr. Baruch puts his finger on a fact of the greatest importance—and a fact which has been surrounded with so much confusion and misrepresentation that the lay public has been given little chance to see the truth clearly. There can be no defense of monopolies, if they exist, which stifle competition, inflate prices and rob the consumer and producer. But it is a tragic error to think of all "Big business" as being monopolistic. Today, for example, we can buy a good automobile for about $700, as a result of the economies of mass production, and it has been accurately estimated that to produce the same car by handcraft would cost $17,000. In this field, bigness has been a curse or a blessing? Today we get cheaper foods and commodities and a much wider variety as a result of mass production and distribution. Has the public suffered or gained?

Bigness, properly used, means efficiency, service, more goods for less money. It means more wealth, more jobs, more opportunities. It means the kind of progress that changed America from a poor and unimportant country into the world's greatest industrial power, with the highest standard of living, in 150 years. Those who would destroy business because it is big, would destroy progress and opportunity.

ELECTRIC RATES REDUCED AGAIN

Public Service Customers Will Save
$720,000 a Year

New Rates Go Into Effect on Meter Readings

Taken On and After May 1, 1938

Residential electric rates of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois will be reduced again, beginning with meter readings taken on and after May 1. The reduction will amount to more than $720,000 annually among 95 per cent of the Company's customers.

The New Rates are as Follows:

	1 to 4 Rooms	5 Rooms	6 Rooms	7 Rooms	8 or more Rooms	Price per Kilowatt-Hour (net)
1st Block of Kilowatt-Hours used per Month	40	50	60	70	80	@ 6.2 cents
2nd Block of Kilowatt-Hours used per Month	60	50	40	30	20	@ 3.0 cents
All Over	100	100	100	100	100	@ 2.0 cents

Minimum charge—fifty cents, except in cases of unusual connected load.

The old rates (net), retained as optional for existing customers at present locations, consists of four blocks as follows:

6.8c per kilowatt-hour for first 7 kilowatt-hours used per room. 5c per kilowatt-hour for next 5 kilowatt-hours used per room. 3c per kilowatt-hour for next 5 kilowatt-hours used per room. 2c per kilowatt-hour for all electricity used in excess of 17 kilowatt-hours per room.

How Users Benefit

Householders will find that under the new rates the cost of operating electric appliances as well as lighting will be even less than before. A glance at the above new rates shows how much cheaper kilowatt-hours become with increased use of electricity. As before, such ordinary household appliances as refrigerators, lamps, radios, etc., are usually sufficient to consume the initial blocks of the rate, the balance of the service and all additional being at the 2c rate.

Further information about the new rates and new appliances can be obtained at any Public Service store.

NUMBER 33

Primaries Are Regulated By Illinois Statute

GENERAL ELECTIONS ARE HELD EVERY EVEN NUMBERED YEAR

Party Candidates Will Be Voted on Tuesday, April 12

In Illinois there are two types of regular elections—the primary, the purpose of which is to nominate party candidates, and the general election at which candidates are elected to office.

Primary Elections

Primary elections are regulated by the primary law, which is liable to change at any session of the state legislature. Under the present law primaries are held on the second Tuesday in April every even numbered year for the nomination of party candidates that are to be voted upon at the election held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The law provides that the primaries of all political parties be held at the same time and place and that the expense thereof shall be paid out of public funds in the same manner as in case of regular elections. At primary election each party is provided with separate ballots bearing a distinctive color and containing the names of none but candidates of that party. The names of candidates are put upon their party ballots by petition and in the order in which the petitions are filed as required by law. General election officers have charge of the primaries.

Primaries apply to elective offices except presidential electors, university trustees, township (so called) and school officers.

Precinct, senatorial and state committee members are chosen at the primaries.

Plurality vote
The person receiving the highest number of votes at a primary election as a candidate of a party for a given office becomes the nominee of his party for such office by virtue of such vote. Tie votes are decided by lot as provided by law.

Every person desiring to vote at a primary election states his party affiliation, and a judge of election gives him one ballot of the party with which he declares himself to be affiliated.

Congress

The legislative powers of the national government are vested in a congress, which consists of a senate and a house of representatives. The life of a congress begins on the third day of January of every odd numbered year and is limited to two years.

Two Senators from Each State
In the senate, each state is represented by two senators. They are elected by the voters of the entire state as provided by the seventh amendment to the federal constitution.

One-third of the senators is elected every even numbered year at the general election in November. They take office on the third of January following their election in November and serve for six years. Senators are eligible for re-election.

Illinois is represented in the senate by Senator William Dietrich and Senator James Hamilton Lewis. Both are Democrats.

Republican candidates are Richard J. Lyons, of Libertyville, ten years state representative; William J. Baker of Chicago, and Clarence P. Parker of DeKalb County. The Democratic entrants are Michael L. Igoe, Newton Jenkins, and Albert Lagerstedt, all of Chicago; and Scott W. Lucas, Pavana, and John J. Sullivan, New Lenox.

House of Representatives

The House of Representatives, sometimes spoken of as the lower house or merely as the house, is intended to represent the nation upon the basis of population, which has an equal representation from each state. The states are divided into congressional districts, and the original idea was that there should be one member of the house of representatives for every thirty thousand inhabitants; but as the population of the various states increased it was later decided definitely to fix the number of members without regard to a precise ratio of members to population. If a state legislature fails to provide for its increased representation by redistricting the state before any general election, the additional representatives are chosen by the voters of the state.

Political Party Defined

Primaries concern only the selection of party candidates who are to be voted on at the general election in November.

A political party which at the general election for state and county officers then next preceding a primary polled more than two percent of the entire vote cast in the state is declared by law to be a political party within the state, and is permitted to nominate candidates for all offices and to elect precinct, ward, and state central committeemen.

on a general ticket and are known as congressmen-at-large.

25 Districts in Illinois

Illinois has twenty-five congressional districts and two congressmen-at-large. Representatives are elected every even numbered year at the general election in November, following the selection of party candidates at the primaries in April.

Many powers of government are vested solely in the House of Representatives.

All bills for raising revenue must originate in the House. It has the sole power of impeachment. Furthermore it has the privilege of choosing the president of the United States in case no one candidate should receive a majority of the electoral vote.

Lake County in Tenth
Lake county is in the Tenth Congressional District, which comprises all of Lake and part of Cook county. Its representative is Ralph E. Church, Republican, who is a candidate for re-election.

Other Republican candidates are John Fay Harris of Lake Forest, and Robert E. Schaefer, Chicago. Three Democrats also are seeking the nomination. They are: Joseph F. Elward and C. Hilding Anderson, both of Chicago, and William Mason, Wilmette.

Duties of Officers

County Judge

The county judge is the judge of the county court. The county court deals with local administrative problems, and it has exclusive jurisdiction in cases involving the care of the insane, insolvent debtors' proceedings, and assignments for the benefit of creditors. It also has jurisdiction in disputed elections and the assessment and collection of taxes. It has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court in appeals from justices of the peace, in drainage matters, and eminent domain cases.

Because of the unusual clause in the constitution conferring upon the county court, "such other jurisdiction as may be provided for by general law," the county court has a wider and more varied jurisdiction than any other of our courts of record.

The county judge also may hear civil cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed one thousand dollars, and he also conducts trials of persons charged with misdemeanors. (A misdemeanor is a law infraction where the punishment is not imprisonment in the penitentiary or death.) This brings the county judge into the original sphere of judicial supervision.

Probate Jurisdiction

In counties of less than 85,000 inhabitants, the county court has original jurisdiction in all matters relating to the settlement of estates of deceased persons; the appointment of guardians of minors, and conservators of the insane and feeble-minded, and the settlement of their accounts, and in all matters relating to apprentices.

County judges are elected every fourth year at the general election on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, of the "off year," or non-presidential election date.

Under the "new practices act," which became effective Jan. 1, 1934, there are no stated terms of either the county courts or the probate courts. They are open continuously, except that they may adjourn from time to time at their discretion.

Because of the varied jurisdiction of the county court, which affects the people in so many different aspects the judge of that court is one of the most important officers to be selected by the electorate.

The salary of the County Judge is $6,000 a year.

The Candidates

Candidates for this important office are: Judge Perry L. Persons, Republican, incumbent, who is serving his seventh consecutive term, and who

Officials Required to Subscribe to Oath

Each elected county official, before entering upon the duties of his office, is required to take and subscribe and file with the county clerk, the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will support the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the state of Illinois, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office according to the best of my ability."

is the sole Republican entrant; and two Democrats—Esther C. Singer of Highland Park, and Robert P. Sullivan of Deerfield.

Probate Judge

In counties having more than 85,000 inhabitants a probate judge and a probate clerk must be elected to attend to the probate business of the county. In such counties the county court has only law jurisdiction. The probate judge and probate clerk are elected at the same time as the county judge and county clerk and they serve for the same length of time.

Specifically the probate judge administers the estates of deceased and incompetent persons and of minor children, or the estates of persons who have been adjudged insane in the county court. The probate judge appoints administrators for intestate estates, guardians for minors, and conservators for incompetents; approves their bonds and hears and allows claims against such estates; supervises the reports of administrators, and if correct, approves them. He is charged with the duty of seeing that the funds of such estates are conserved, or invested only in accordance with the law. He has the power to punish by contempt proceedings and otherwise all personal representatives who do not administer their trust as administrator, guardian or conservator, exactly in accordance with law.

Matters relating to apprentices are rarely heard in these modern days, but the jurisdiction still exists.

The probate judge and the county clerk are permitted, by law, to hold court for each other and to perform each other's duties in their own or any other county when it is found necessary or convenient.

The salary of the probate judge is $5,000 a year.

Established in 1922

The probate court of Lake county was established in 1922, and Martin C. Decker was elected as judge, in which office he has served continuously. Judge Decker is a candidate for re-nomination and election, the only Republican entrant. Philip W. Yager and Emanuel R. Parnass, both of Waukegan, are the Democratic entrants.

County Clerk

There is no office in the county that handles a larger volume of work than does the county clerk's office. There is practically no item of county business that does not at one stage or another pass through the hands of the county clerk or his deputies, and the office is so manifold that they touch upon or are intimately connected with the transactions of nearly every other county office.

The county clerk is ex-officio clerk of the county court. He is also clerk of the county board of supervisors, in which capacity he is required to record all proceedings of the board, file and preserve all bills of account that are acted upon by the supervisors. He issues county warrants upon the county treasurer in payment of bills and other disbursements from the county fund.

In this office are filed all records of bonds, papers and records, and the county clerk must furnish certified copies of such documents when requested to do so.

Has Charge of Elections

The county clerk has charge of elections and the printing of ballots, and he must see that election boards are supplied with proper and adequate election materials.

After every general election, the county clerk and two justices of the peace of the county canvass the votes of the county and make abstracts showing the number of votes received by each candidate. These abstracts are filed in the county clerk's office. Marriage licenses are issued by the county clerk or his authorized deputy.

Who May Vote

Every person who has resided in the state of Illinois one year, in the county ninety days, and in the election district thirty days next preceding any election therein, and who is a citizen of the United States twenty-one years of age or over is entitled to vote at an election. A permanent abode is necessary to constitute a residence.

ties, and here also are filed the birth and death records of the county.

Prepares Tax Books

Perhaps the biggest single jobs in this office are the writing of the assessor's and collectors' books and the extension of taxes, which require an office force of over 40 persons for several weeks each year in order to complete the work within the time specified by statute. Every fourth year when the quadrennial real estate assessment is made a much larger number of assistants is required.

The volume of business transacted in this office has increased almost in exact ratio to the increase in population of the county. In 1910 the county clerk and three deputies handled all of the work, and the county at that time had a population of approximately 50,000. The present population exceeds 100,000 and six deputies now assist the county clerk in conducting the affairs of the office.

The earnings of the office are from $10,000 to $20,000 annually, which is turned over to the county treasurer. The salary of the county clerk of Lake county is $4,000 a year, and in addition to this he receives certain extra fees for special work. Russ Alford, incumbent, is the only Democratic candidate. Four Republicans seek the G. O. P. nomination: Jay B. Morse, Libertyville; William J. Stratton, Ingleside; Lew A. Hendee, and J. Russell Miller, both of Waukegan.

Probate Clerk

Lake County is one of the twelve counties in the state of Illinois, having a population of over 85,000, in which the Probate Court is separated from the County Court, having been divided December 1st, 1922.

The work of this Court is caring for the estates of deceased persons, minors and incompetents, and is very important, as the title to property by inheritance or by will is as legal as by deed.

The Clerk of the Probate Court is required to file, record, and preserve all papers filed in estates, record all Court orders, and keep a docket, index and register of estates, attend all Court sessions, keep an accurate account of all money received and paid out and report the same to the Board of Supervisors twice a year.

In Lake county a large volume of business passes through the office of the probate clerk. Capacity for exacting detail, and ability and willingness to attend courteously to all matters relating to estates and to the proceedings of the court, would seem essential qualifications a voter should look for in candidates for this important office.

Three Democrats and four Republicans seek the nomination for this office. They are—Democrats: Charles F. Heblor of North Chicago, and Jack B. Ewing and Kenneth R. Klopff, both of Waukegan. Republicans: Allen J. Nelson, George W. Strang, and Ray J. Reardon, all of Waukegan, and Leonard D. Hook, of Grayslake.

County Treasurer

The county treasurer must receive, safely keep, and pay out according to law all public money that may properly come into his hands. He must keep a complete record of the business of his office and the books containing the records are always open to inspection of the public.

Supervisor of Assessments

In counties under township organization and of less than 125,000 inhabitants, the county treasurer is ex officio supervisor of assessments of taxes in his county. Lake county is in this class.

The treasurer must report to the county board at each of its regular meetings all sums received and paid out by him since his last report. These reports are filed in the county clerk's office, and subject to inspection of the public. Twice each year the county board must make a settlement with the treasurer and count the funds.

The purpose of this "Primary Election Edition" of The Antioch News is to present a brief digest of primary election laws, together with the specific duties of the several offices in contest, and information regarding qualifications of candidates who have co-operated with The News in making the edition possible.

Owing to the stress of economic conditions, the problem of conducting the affairs of local government at least expense, without sacrificing efficiency, has become a matter of concern to every taxpayer in the land.

$6,000,000 Tax Bill
In Lake county the treasurer is collector of taxes. The county tax bill for the last decade has averaged over six million dollars annually.

Formerly two per cent on inheritance and interest on county funds deposited in banks served to increase the earnings of the treasurer's office, but these two sources of revenue have been abolished.

Aids County Revenue

In point of producing revenue for the county no office is even a close rival to that of county treasurer. In 1929 the office turned over to the county over a quarter of a million dollars. Interest on bank deposits alone that year exceeded $27,000. In 1931 the earnings, due to depression and decreased taxes, dropped to $200,000. Last year $4,700,000 taxes were collected and over $215,000 were turned over to the county fund as earnings.

The treasurer's bond for the handling of county funds is $600,000, the premium of which is paid by the county, and in addition to this bond he must also furnish a bond of $940,000 for the handling of state funds.

Law Is Strict

The county board names depositories for the county funds. Banks holding county funds are not to pay to, withhold for the benefit of, or contract in any manner for the payment to the county treasurer, or to any other person for him, any interest or other fee, or emolument on account of such deposit.

The Illinois statute stipulates that the making of a personal profit or emolument by the treasurer out of any county moneys by loaning, depositing or otherwise using or disposing of the same in any manner whatsoever, shall be deemed a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one or more than ten years.

An amendment to the state constitution was adopted in 1880, providing that no person having once been elected to the office of sheriff or treasurer shall be eligible to the same office for four years after the expiration of the term of office to which he was elected.

The salary of the Lake county treasurer is $4,000 a year. There are no fees which the treasurer receives in return for his services.

Has Two Deputies

The incumbent treasurer, Alen J. Nelson has two deputies.

One Democrat—James McMillen, Antioch; and two Republicans—Garfield R. Leaf, and Robert J. Green-slade, both of Waukegan, are candidates for treasurer nomination.

Sheriff

The duties of the county sheriff are two fold—he is a police officer and he is also the executive agent of the courts.

Those duties which relate to the keeping of the peace are known as police duties. He is responsible for the arrest and safe-keeping of persons charged with crime or misdemeanor, and he is custodian of the court house and jail.

The "News" Is Fair to Candidates

"I truthfully believe that your proposition is the fairest proposition I have received," a candidate writes upon the manner in which this newspaper handles publicity for the various aspirants for office.

Another writes: "It is a pleasure to have your co-operation."

LYONS' WITHDRAWAL ENLIVENS CAMPAIGN IN BOTH PARTIES

Six Republicans and 6 Democrats in Race; Nomination Means Election

The retirement from the legislature of Representative Richard J. Lyons of Libertyville, who is campaigning for United States senator, has increased the opportunity for another candidate to get a representative post. Five Republicans are competing for the vacancy. The district includes the counties of Lake, McHenry and Boone.

Because the party senatorial committees have agreed to nominate one Democrat and two Republicans for the house seats, nomination will be tantamount to election.

LAW-MAKING BODY

The legislative, or law-making, power of the state is vested in the general assembly, commonly referred to as the state legislature, which consists of a senate and a house of representatives. The members of both houses are elected by the people. The regular session of the legislature commences on the Wednesday next after the first Monday in January following the state election in November. All extra sessions are called by the Governor.

The legislature in its biennial sessions considers various measures which are proposed for enactment into law. A proposed law is known as a bill during its consideration in the legislature. A bill may be introduced in either house. There must always be three separate presentations in each house on three different days, though it is not necessary, nor customary for the two houses to consider the same bill on the same day. During the progress of a bill in the general assembly, it is said to have reached the "second reading," or is up for a "third reading," or final passage.

For the two year term, each member of the general assembly receives a salary of $5,000, which is payable during the first regular session of the assembly held after the general election in November.

The Senate

The senate is composed of fifty-one members, one from each of the senatorial districts of the state. Senators from the even numbered districts are elected at the same time as the Governor, in the years divisible by four.

The senate elects a president pro tempore, who is a member of the senate, and who serves when the lieutenant governor for any reason is not present.

All impeachments are tried by the senate and it takes a two-thirds vote of all senators elected to convict. If the governor of the state is tried the chief justice presides.

Lake in Eighth District
Lake county is in the eighth senatorial district, comprising the counties of Lake, McHenry and Boone, with a total population of about 154,000, with Lake county as the most populous unit—104,000, McHenry county, 35,000 and Boone county, 15,000.

The present senator is Ray Paddock of Waukegan who was re-elected in 1936 to serve his third term.

State Representatives

The house of representatives is composed of one hundred and fifty-three members—three members from each of the fifty-one senatorial districts. The entire body is elected every even numbered year.

The sitting representatives from the eighth district are Richard J. Lyons, Republican, Libertyville; Nick Keller, Republican, Waukegan; and Thomas Bolger, Democrat, McHenry. Keller and Bolger are candidates for re-election, while Lyons withdrew from the Representative race to become a candidate for United States senator. Other Republican entrants include Roy J. Stewart, Woodstock; Charles H. Francis, Woodstock; Victor O. Siegler, Spring Grove; Charles C. Kapschull, West Deerfield; and Harold D. Kelsey, Cuba.

The Democratic candidates are Joseph A. Jadrich, North Chicago; Charles F. Hayes, Harvard; Thomas J. Keefe, Ingleside; Einar Strang, Antioch; Edward T. Leonard, Grayslake; and Bolger, the incumbent.

Minority Representation

There are three members of the house of representatives elected at the same time in every senatorial district, and every voter has the right to vote for the three candidates, giving each one vote; for two candidates giving

McMILLEN UNOPPOSED IN PRIMARY ELECTION FOR COUNTY TREAS.

Famous Wrestler Expects a Hard Bout in Novem- ber Election

Entrance of Jim McMillen, of Antioch, internationally famous wrestler and athlete, into the campaign for the nomination for county treasurer on the Democratic ticket, and reports that he will retire from the mat if nominated, is stirring the sports world.

McMillen says that if he is elected in the fall, the duties of treasurer will come first, but that it is impossible for a man who has been active in sports to stop exercising suddenly, without serious injury to his health. He will continue to train and keep in condition for occasional matches in Chicago and nearby cities.

Wrestled All Topnotchers

While attending the University of Illinois, he captained the football team in 1923, and was considered one of the outstanding football players of his time. It was at Illinois that he started his mat career, holding the Big Ten mat title in 1923. On graduating from the College of Engineering in 1924, he took a job with a Chicago construction company, played professional football with the Chicago Bears, and wrestled some matches in this vicinity. Since 1927 he has devoted all his time to wrestling and is at present one of the topnotchers. He has wrestled all the champions in the past ten years.

Exceptional Qualifications

McMillen never has been active in politics, but has given promise of developing into a good campaigner. He is especially strong in the western part of the county, having lived in Grayslake and Antioch all his life. Between trips to all sections of the United States and Canada to engage in wrestling contests, he operates a farm at Antioch, and acts as vice-president of the Chicago Bears Football team.

Because of his excellent marks at the University of Illinois, McMillen is one of the most highly educated of the candidates for county office.

While friends of the athlete feel certain that he will win they realize that he will face a strong opponent. The Republican nominee in the fall will probably be Garfield Leaf, an athlete also, and former football player.

Any way you take it the situation promises some real action in the midst of the football season next November.

CHARLES H. FRANCIS LAWYER, WOODSTOCK, ILL. for State Representative

TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH SENATORIAL DIST.

Mr. Francis served the people of the district as a state representative for three terms, from 1920 to 1926, during which he made a very creditable record.

His candidacy, the respect in which he is held in the district, and his ability, have been summed up by the Harvard (Ill.) Herald which says:

"His record during three terms in the legislature was distinctly a credit to himself and his constituency. Reference to the session laws following the three terms in which he served disclosed that his votes were recorded for measures for the public good and that he has had no occasion to defend them or to offer alibis for the way in which he voted on any controversial legislation."

In his campaign Mr. Francis is emphasizing that he is a lawyer and that, because of this, he is especially qualified to serve the district in a way that no other Republican candidate for the position can offer.

The most important committee of the house is the judiciary committee, which handles practically all important bills, except appropriations. This committee does about one-third of all the house committee work and is composed exclusively of lawyers. Any lawyer elected to the house automatically becomes a member.

This district has not been represented in this vital position during the past two years.

The primary election at which nominations are made will be held Tuesday, April 12, 1938. Voters are urged to participate in the primary and voice their choice for state representative.

Two Republicans are to be nominated in this election.

Banking Experience Asset for Strang in Race for Probate Clerk

An experience of 18 years in practical banking and five years as assistant bank examiner are admirable qualifications which the friends of George W. Strang are stressing for the candidate for clerk of the probate clerk on the Republican ticket.

Strang is strictly a home product, his friends declare, as he was born near Millburn and has lived continuously in Lake county.

The Strangs have two children, a boy, 16 and a girl, 11.

LADIES AID TO MEET WITH MRS. PERRY

The next meeting of the M. E. Ladies Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Perry, Wednesday afternoon, April 6. Mr. Pollock will give a talk on "Spring Planting and Flowers."

Miss L. Gibson, Miss Helen Olsen, Miss Esther Fledderjohn, Miss Mildred Hulik and Mrs. Ruby Richey were in Waukegan Monday evening to see the movie "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" at the Genesee Theatre.

Hon. Nick Keller
Member House of Representatives
Waukegan, Illinois
My Dear Mr. Keller:

In the name of the Illinois Education Association, I thank you most heartily for the splendid record you made on roll calls on school bills at the regular session of the 60th General Assembly. I find by studying the journals of the House that you voted favorably to the cause of public education on ten of the most important roll calls.

It was also evident that you studied all school measures with an open mind and gave strict attention to your committee work and the debates on the floor of the House.

I hope your constituents will keep you in the General Assembly as long as you care to serve them and to give to the schools the excellent service you gave this year.

Yours respectfully,

It is his duty to suppress riots, fighting and all breaches of the peace, and to prevent crime within the confines of his county. He may arrest, without a warrant, persons whom he sees breaking the law, and take them before a magistrate. The sheriff sees that all prisoners are properly guarded and supplied with suitable food. When prisoners are sentenced to the penitentiary or reform school, the sheriff removes them thither. He causes the electrocution of criminals condemned to death.

May Appoint Deputies

The sheriff may appoint deputies to assist him in his work. These deputies have all the powers of the sheriff, and their official acts are considered as acts of the sheriff, he being responsible in all cases for them.

The sheriff may have as many regular deputies as are required to conduct the affairs of his office and authorized by the county board of supervisors. In Lake county Sheriff Doolittle has several deputies on salary, and many special deputies in various parts of the county.

To keep the peace, prevent crime, or to execute any writ, warrant or process, order or decree, the sheriff may call to his aid when necessary, any person or the power of the county.

Agent of Courts

The major part of the sheriff's time is consumed by his duties as an executive agent of the courts. He, or his deputy is present at all sessions of the court and he opens and closes court with the formal proclamation. He is charged with the responsibility of serving writs, warrants, summonses, subpoenas and executions, and other papers that the court may issue.

A warrant directs the sheriff to arrest a certain person accused of crime.

A summons directs the sheriff to summon a certain person to appear in court to answer a demand made by another person named in the summons.

A subpoena commands a certain person to appear in court as a witness.

An execution empowers the sheriff to carry a judgment into effect. A common form of execution is that which directs the sheriff to seize a certain property and sell it to pay the obligations of a person against whom a suit has been decided.

Not Eligible to Re-election

A person having once been elected to the office of sheriff is not eligible to re-election for four years after the expiration of the term for which he was elected.

In Lake county the sheriff's salary is $4,000 a year and he is allowed expenses when acting in his official capacity. The office also is entitled to certain fees.

LEGISLATURE ----

each a vote and a half, or for one candidate, giving him three votes. A voter also may give two votes to one candidate and one to another.

By this plan the party in the minority can usually elect one man by having but one candidate and giving him all of the votes. Usually the party in the majority nominates two candidates and the party in the minority nominates one candidate. In this case a nomination is equivalent to an election. When two parties are of nearly equal strength each one may nominate two candidates. In this case voters will give their favorite candidate three votes instead of one and a half each for two candidates. This is called "plumping" and may sacrifice party to personal interests.

The Republican party will nominate two candidates and the Democrats one candidate in the forthcoming primary in the Eighth district.

The candidates: Democrats—Bart Tyrrell, Waukegan, and Charles A. Stanton, Ingleside. Republicans—Thomas E. Kennedy, John E. Froelich, and Harold E. Pilliant, all of Waukegan.

Superintendent of Schools

The county superintendent of schools is charged with the distribution of the county's share in the state school funds. He gives advice to school boards and to local school officials. Under supervision of the state superintendent of public instruction, he conducts teachers' examinations and arranges for teachers' institutes.

The county superintendent of schools must keep an account of sales of common school lands in his county, and of all sums of money received and paid out. He must present a written report to the county board at its regular meeting in September. He apportions school money to the various townships.

In controversies arising under the school law the advice of the county superintendent must first be sought, but appeal may be taken to the state superintendent. The county superintendent stands much in the same relation to the school officers and teachers of the county as the state superintendent stands to those of the whole state.

The candidates for this office are: William C. Petty, Republican, Antioch, who is just completing his second term in this office with eminent success, and is the only Republican entrant; while two Democrats seek the nomination in the April 12 primary. They are: T. Arthur Simpson, former county school head; and Charles Noll, of Waukegan.

RECORD OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMMENDS ROY J. STEWART

Pointing out that the splendid public services rendered in the past by Roy J. Stewart, friends of the Woodstock supervisor are boosting his candidacy for his return as state representative from the Eighth Senatorial District, comprising the counties of Lake, McHenry and Boone. Besides serving as sheriff and later as treasurer of McHenry county, the candidate served as Eighth District representative in the 55th general assembly. His friends commend his good record and splendid qualifications to the voters of the Eighth district.

Reared on Farm

Mr. Stewart was born and raised on a farm near Richmond, Illinois. He served McHenry County as Chief Deputy Sheriff from 1914 to 1918, and was elected Sheriff and served as such from 1918 to 1922. During his term as Sheriff the "Search and Seizure Law" went into effect, making it unlawful to transport intoxicating liquor within the State. Mr. Stewart, as sheriff, handled this situation in a manner very competently and effectively, with little expense to the county.

In 1922 he was elected County Treasurer, and as such installed a complete new system of collecting taxes, which system saved the county a large sum of money each year. The same system is now used in nearly all counties in the state.

Ability Unquestioned

His service in public office, his backers say, have well qualified him to serve his District, and his ability is not questioned by any one who knows him. At the present time he is Supervisor of the Township of Dorr in McHenry County, Illinois, and attending to the arduous duties of conducting relief work, which under the law is imposed upon his office. The records of his office will show that Dorr Township stands near the top in the matter of faithful and effective handling of this big problem.

In his former years he was an employee of the Oliver Typewriter Company in Woodstock, which employment gives Mr. Stewart a familiarity with the problems of industry, and he is well qualified to meet the problems now confronting the people in regard to both labor and capital.

Republican Candidate for REPRESENTATIVEEighth Illinois District
(Boone, McHenry and Lake Counties)

Roy J. Stewart of Woodstock, a former member of the Illinois Legislature during the 55th General Assembly, is again a candidate for the nomination from the Eighth Senatorial District, which comprises Lake, McHenry and Boone counties.

Mr. Stewart was born and raised on a farm near Richmond, Illinois. He served McHenry County as Chief Deputy Sheriff from 1914 to 1918, was elected Sheriff and served as such from 1918 to 1922. During his term as Sheriff the "Search and Seizure Law" went into effect, making it unlawful to transport intoxicating liquor within the State. In 1922 he was elected County Treasurer, and as such installed a complete new system of collecting taxes, which system saved the county a large sum of money each year. The same system is now used in nearly all counties in the state.

His services in public office have well qualified him to serve his District, and his ability is not questioned by any one who knows him. At the present time he is Supervisor of the Township of Dorr in McHenry County, Illinois, and attending to the arduous duties of conducting relief work, which under the law is imposed upon his office. In his former years he was an employee of the Oliver Typewriter Company in Woodstock, which employment gives Mr. Stewart a familiarity with the problems of industry and he is well qualified to meet the problems now confronting the people in regard to both labor and capital.

His former services make him the logical man for the Republican Party to send to the Legislature as their representative from the Eighth Senatorial District. In the present political turmoil, the need of an experienced man, with force and leadership, is the demand of the present time.

ALLEN J. NELSON OFFERS FINE PAST RECORD IN OFFICE

Allen J. Nelson, present County Treasurer of Lake County, is offering his successful record in the present office as his recommendation for the candidacy of the Republicans as Probate Clerk in the coming primary Tuesday, April 12th.

For the first time in its history, Allen J. Nelson, candidate for the Republican nomination as probate Clerk, who is now serving as County Treasurer, put Lake County upon a cash basis during his term in office.

Mr. Nelson established a pay-as-you-go plan in the County Treasurer's Office soon after his election with the result that a healthy condition was effected in the County's finances almost immediately and no borrowing against tax anticipation warrants has been done during the last two years.

Nelson is completing his term in office with the finest record possible. Courteous office service, 100 per cent co-operation with other departments and unquestioned accuracy and honesty in accounts has won for Mr. Nelson the unrestricted respect of all business and tax paying individuals.

Mr. Nelson, who is 39, was born and reared in Waukegan and attended High School there. Later he attended the American Institution of Banking. He is married and has one child, a boy. He is also a member of the Lake County Farm Bureau.

His friends declare most enthusiastically that a vote for Nelson will be a vote for efficient governmental service.

BANDIT CAPTURER NOW A CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Victor O. Siegler Has Courage and Fine Qualifications for Assemblyman

Eleven years ago, Victor O. Siegler, who is now a candidate for State Representative from the Eighth Senatorial District, figured prominently in the arrest of "Baby Face" Nelson and associates who had held up and robbed the Spring Grove State Bank.

Regarding the prompt and courageous action of Siegler on this occasion, the Fox Valley Mirror printed the following in a recent issue:

"In 1937 the bank of Spring Grove was robbed. Floyd Foss, at present the cashier of the State Bank of Richmond, was at the desk at the bank when the two men made their raid. S. J. Richardson, the regular cashier, was absent, on his honeymoon, and Mr. Foss was thrust in the vault while the gangsters swept up the money of the bank—about $3,000 in all—and made their getaway.

Captures "Baby Face" Nelson
"Squads of pursuers quickly gathered. One of the cars which picked up the trail was driven by Victor O. Siegler and Paul Weber who were armed with but one rifle. Boldly they hurried to Fox Lake where they sighted the robbers and courageously compelled them to hold up their hands while Town Marshal Riggs took them into custody. One of these bandits was afterwards identified as the infamous "Public Rat Number One"—"Baby Face" Nelson."

It is not the fact that Vic Siegler helped to capture a dangerous gunman that fits him for office. It is, his friends say, that he is naturally endowed to serve his district in the legislature. His rare judgment on public matters, his foresight, and above all, his integrity, that make him the ideal public servant.

Vote-Getter

Two years ago, "Vic" received 94% of the votes of Spring Grove, Richmond and Hebron which revealed the faith of those who knew him best.

Victor served from 1926 to 1932 as village clerk of the village of Spring Grove. He is a stalwart Republican; believes in the Golden Rule, and is against any and all forms of regulation of private business. He believes in and practices all of the "good old rules" and mottoes which make for happiness in the home; he is hampered by no political bosses; the constitution is his guide; he believes with all his heart in the Bill of Rights and will fight to sustain it.

Although one of the youngest of the candidates, Mr. Siegler is thoroughly experienced in the legislative matters and "knows his way around" at Springfield where for a number of years he was employed in important departments of state government—first with the department of conservation and later in the department of education.

BOLGER'S RECORD WILL PROVE GREAT ASSET IN CAMPAIGN

Thomas A. Bolger, present Representative for the Eighth District, is naturally the best known of the Democrats seeking nomination for that office. His nomination on the Democratic ticket seems assured, yet Mr. Bolger is giving as much attention to his campaign as though he had not made himself solid with his party throughout the eight years he is now completing in the General Assembly.

Rep. Bolger whose home is near McHenry, was first elected to the legislature in 1930, succeeding himself in the three following elections. A survey of his record as a legislator shows that he has gone to the front for his district on every occasion and has served the people efficiently.

Rep. Bolger has been especially helpful in educational matters, or matters immediately pertaining to the conduct of the schools. He actively sponsored a bill which permitted non-high school districts to raise the tax rate from fifty cents to seventy-five cents. After this bill became a law the non-high school district in Lake County held an election and increased the tax rate to 75 cents. As a result the high school district is now in a much better condition, deriving the proper revenue from the non-high district it serves.

It was Representative Bolger who introduced the bill, which became a law, to raise the minimum legal butterfat contents of ice cream from eight to twelve per cent. Prior to the passage of this bill Illinois had a legal butterfat content of 8 per cent, while Wisconsin and neighboring states had a legal content of 10 to 12 per cent.

Representative Bolger polled the greatest vote in his district in the last election; his vote was exceeded only in the larger district, comprising Cook county.

Ice Boxes on Ships
Ice boxes on ships date back to 1856. Shipboard refrigeration came into use in the Campania and Lucania, Cunarders, in 1893.

THOMAS A. BOLGER

Democratic Candidate
FOR

Representative FOR THE EIGHTH DISTRICT

Rep. Bolger has served the Eighth District eight years with efficiency, honesty, sincerity, and aggressive loyalty. The Legislative Voters League, strictly non-partisan, has the following to say of him in their report on the records of Legislators, published in the "ASSEMBLY BULLETIN" Feb. 1938:

"THOMAS A. BOLGER, Representative, (Dem.) McHenry County farmer, is ending his fourth term, in which he worked hard and showed increasing capacity. He gave particular attention to tax matters and did excellent service as chairman of the Revenue Committee; he took an effective part in debate upon occasion and made a good record."

Thomas Bolger's "increasing capacity," gained through eight years experience is valuable to the Eighth District and to the Democratic party: DO NOT FAIL TO

Of German ancestry, Victor O. Siegler's parents removed to Illinois on St. Patrick's Day thirty years ago. Graduate of Richmond High School, active in baseball and basketball, a good student, and the child of ideal parents, Victor O. Siegler began working at the State Fish Hatchery at Spring Grove two weeks after his graduation. Then to the State Automobile Department, after which he had the responsibility, in the office of the State Superintendent of Education, Hon. Francis G. Blair, of issuing State Teachers' Certificates. He held this important post until 1935. He knows Springfield; has a firm grasp on state government; has served three terms as Township Treasurer; one term as Village Clerk of Spring Grove and was active in the forming of the Young Men's Republican Club of Sangamon county.
